

Combatting Elder Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation: A COMMUNITY DISCUSSION

PUBLIC AGENCIES STAKEHOLDER SESSION AUGUST 22, 2018

Representatives from several public agencies who are on the “front line” of combatting elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation will discuss their roles and responsibilities, answer questions, and engage in discussion with other stakeholders about how we can work together to further fight elder abuse, neglect, and exploitation.

SAVE THE DATES
for our future sessions:

Wed. September 26, 2018
Wed. October 24, 2018 &
Wed. November 28, 2018

All sessions will be held at the Job Center, room 1133, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Elder abuse is a significant and growing problem in our community

Montgomery County's Collaboration Against Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation (CAANE) wants to learn from, and share information with, other stakeholders about its nature, extent, effects, causes, & solutions.

To do this, we are hosting a series of stakeholder sessions between June and November 2018 to:

- Share information about the problem
- Better understand who's doing what
- Discuss what strategies may work best
- Learn how we can team up more
